Office Hours: M 12-1, or by appointment Office: Cowell Faculty Annex A110

Required Texts: (All available at Literary Guillotine)
W. deVries & T. Triplett, eds., Knowledge, Mind, and the Given (EPM)
J. McDowell, Mind and World (MW)
R. Brandom, Articulating Reasons (AR)
Additional required readings can be found on the eCommons course web site.

You will be required to write a short essay each week (except the first) on a topic specified by me. These must be emailed to me by 8 p.m. the Monday prior to class.
40% of your grade will be based on these papers. In addition, you will be expected to write a research paper. The topic must be approved by me on or before Friday, February 28th. You must also provide a rough draft or detailed outline of the paper and submit it for my review on or before Friday, March 14th. Your final paper should take account of comments made in that review. 50% of your grade will be based on this paper, including satisfaction of the topic approval and review steps.
10% of your grade will be based on attendance and participation.

Plagiarism or any other form of academic dishonesty will be grounds for receiving a failing grade for this course.
Any missed assignment will receive a failing grade unless prior arrangement has been made with me.
