PHILOSOPHY DESIGNATED EMPHASIS

Application

Return completed form to the Philosophy Graduate Program Coordinator to apply for a Designated Emphasis.

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Email: ________________________________________________________________

Home Department: ______________________________________________________

Faculty Advisor: ______________________________________________________

Dissertation Title: ______________________________________________________

Research Interests: ____________________________________________________

Requirements

1. Department approval: Discuss with your primary faculty advisor your intention to pursue a Philosophy Designated Emphasis (DE).

2. Philosophy advisor: A core Philosophy faculty member is required to act as your advisor, serve on your qualifying exam committee, and/or on your dissertation committee.

   Philosophy Faculty Advisor: __________________________________________

3. Coursework: You must complete four graduate courses selected in consultation with the faculty advisor. One of the four may be an independent study approved by the faculty advisor.

   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

4. Writing: Submit a significant piece of writing that demonstrates competency in the field. The writing could take the form of a seminar paper or dissertation chapter. The essay must meet the approval of the philosophy advisor.